OUR PRESENTERS

Thomas W. Hale, PhD is Professor of Pediatrics and Associate Dean of Research at Texas Tech University School of Medicine. He is the founder and director of the InfantRisk Center, a national call center for pregnant and breastfeeding mothers. He holds degrees in Pharmacy and a Ph.D. in Pharmacology and Toxicology and is widely experienced in Pediatric and Breastfeeding Clinical Pharmacology. He is a well-known international lecturer in the pharmacology of lactation and is the author of five books including: Medications and Mothers' Milk, the top-selling drug reference manual in the world. His other books include Textbook of Human Lactation; Clinical Therapy in Breastfeeding Women; and Drug Therapy and Breastfeeding. He is considered by many to be one of the world's leading authorities in the use of medications in breastfeeding women.

Kathleen Marinelli MD, IBCLC, FABM, FAAP is an Associate Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Connecticut School of Medicine, and a neonatologist and director of Lactation Support Services at Connecticut Children's Medical Center, Hartford, CT, USA. She graduated from Cornell University and Cornell University School of Medicine and was a pediatric intern, resident, nephrology fellow and neonatology fellow at Children's National Medical Center, George Washington University, Washington DC. She was in the first group of 20 physicians to be recognized internationally with the designation of "Fellow of the Academy of Breastfeeding Medicine" (FABM), and is serving her tenth year on the ABM Board of Directors, also chairing the Protocol committee. Dr. Marinelli is Chairman Elect of United States Breastfeeding Committee.

BABIES

Infants under the age of 6 months are welcome to attend. We request restless infants be promptly attended to outside the meeting room as a courtesy to other participants. A private area will be available for breastfeeding and pumping mothers.
